SCHOOLS HEAD TO RETIRE

Supt. E. J. Fitzgerald Will Not Become Candidate For Re-Election This Year

Edmund J. Fitzgerald, now serving his twentieth consecutive year as County Superintendent of Schools, will not be a candidate for re-election.

Upon the completion of the present term, the fifth to which he has been elected since first taking office in January of 1919, Mr. Fitzgerald will retire—"to rest, to travel and get a little joy out of life."

Public announcement of his intention to "get out of the harness," was made by Mr. Fitzgerald this week.

Mr. Fitzgerald indicated that he hopes, before he steps out of office at noon on January 3, next, to write something of a review of the county school system and its growth during the past twenty years. Such an article by one so well versed in the subject would be of great interest to the taxpayers and this newspaper will be happy to print the article at such time as it is available.

"We have built a great many buildings and have had many, many graduates, some of whom have gone to high places in various walks of life," the Superintendent declared in a brief glance over his twenty years in office.

Mr. Fitzgerald did not say as much, but we suspect that some of the "travel" he mentioned will include a trip with Mrs. Fitzgerald to Manila, to visit their daughter, Mrs. Edmonia Gonzalez and her husband.

Frank C. Jordan Is Candidate

Secretary Of State Will Seek Re-Election To Post For Eighth Term

SACRAMENTO, (UP)—Frank C. Jordan, California's 77-year-old secretary of state whose name has been listed on every general election ballot since 1910, said today he will seek re-election to an eighth term of office in this year's campaign.

Acknowledged dean of the nation's state secretaries, Jordan coupled his announcement of candidacy with an admitted ambition to become dean of all the country's elective state officials.

To fulfill this desire, Jordan would have to pass state Attorney General U. S. Webb, who has 34 years to his credit against 28 for the secretary of state. Both men are republicans.

Webb has not formally announced his candidacy, devoting most of his time in recent weeks to anti-gambling campaigns.

Shanghai Native Will Seek Citizenship

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel McCann were in town on Thursday from Georgetown. Mr. McCann is a native of Shanghai, of British citizenship, and was here to take out his first papers in naturalization.

He came to America from Shanghai in July, leaving a post with the Shanghai municipal government, and is now connected with the Bear State Gold Mines in the Georgetown district.

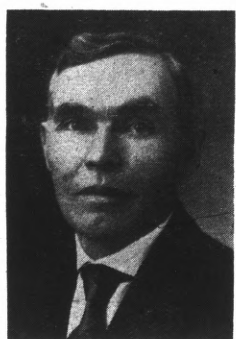

Hollywood Artist Found Slain In Apartment

HOLLYWOOD, (UP)—The blood-spattered apartment of Harry A. Byrnes, an artist who prospered in the movie colony, was sealed and guarded by police today while they looked for clues to his violent death.

A Negro houseboy found Byrnes' body last night on the bedroom floor. He had been dead about 24 hours. The walls of the living room, bath room and bedroom gave evidence of a fierce struggle. Overturned furniture and blood on the floor were visible.

TEXAN URGED FOR SUPREME COURT

New Dealers Hail Retirement Of Justice Sutherland As heralding Important Change

WASHINGTON, (UP)—William S. Knudsen, president of General Motors, testified before the senate unemployment committee today that he hoped for a "business comeback in the spring" that would make current labor lay-offs temporary.

Asserting that heavy decrease in used car sales had been the greatest problem, Knudsen said that the corporation experienced the sharpest drop in sales in history late in 1937—a drop that was "unexpected and beyond our control."

He said he made the decision to lay off men and believed his action was better than putting all the men on very short hours because effect of this probably would be more widespread and severe.

"Did you consider decreasing the price of cars to increase the sales?" chairman James F. Byrnes, D., S. C., asked.

"That is not what is stopping sales," Knudsen replied. "I think that the average man feels that business is going to be slack and will not commit himself."

"What action can be taken by the government to stabilize employment," Byrnes asked.

"I have no suggestion," Knudsen said. "I have only the hope that people will have confidence in the future."

Knudsen said talks with dealers had brought him information that people had a "fear of something out there that you just can't put your hands on."

"I believe that is only a temporary recession," Knudsen said, adding that General Motors was making plans accordingly.

The committee asked Knudsen what effect he thought the General Motors layoff would have on the confidence of the people.

Knudsen made no direct answer. Byrnes then recessed the session and excused Knudsen.

"SHANGHAI WAR" FILM TO BE SHOWN AT CLUBHOUSE

The candid motion picture camera will give its account of the cataclysm in China, Tuesday, January 11 at 8 p. m. at the Shakespeare Clubhouse, when Del Frazier's "Shanghai War," has its Placerville premiere under the club auspices.

In the strictest sense it is not a war picture, rather it is interpretive, going behind the fight to seek out the spirit of a people hard pressed by the invaders yet stoically striving for their equilibrium in the midst of repeated shocks.

All horror scenes having been eliminated, the picture is a casual, efficiently photographed travelogue in beautiful natural color, with the spectator constantly on the fringe of, yet never involved in the fighting. Even in the front-line trench scenes and the views of batteries of three inch guns in action, nothing is shown that even the most sensitive cannot view it with calm, its sponsors report.

Edward Sayers, State Master Councilor, and Harold Duden, state Director of Communications, will go to San Jose Saturday evening where Mr. Sayers will officiate at conferring the Majority Service degree upon some of the members of the Order of De Molay at San Jose.

Naval Building Plan Rushed

Strengthening Of Air Defense At Hawaii Starts With Flight Of Bombers On January 19th

WASHINGTON, (UP)—Naval department officials rushed plans today for construction of the greatest peacetime navy this country has ever possessed.

President Roosevelt has expressed alarm over the unsettled international situation and the growing disregard for treaty rights and international law.

Navy officials prepared plans for a naval construction program above the present "replacement" building program authorized in the Vinson-Trammell act.

The first of the mass flights which will ferry the great PBV-class bombers, each with a crew of from six to eight men, across the more than 2,000 miles of the Pacific will get under way here January 19.

GENERAL MOTORS PRESIDENT LOOKS FOR BUSINESS SPURT IN SPRING

Sharp Decline In Automobile Sales Attributed By Industrial Executive To Unwillingness Of Public To Make Future Commitments In Trade Recession

WASHINGTON, (UP)—Members of the house judiciary committee today drafted a petition to President Roosevelt asking him to appoint their chairman, Rep. Hatton W. Summers, D., Texas, to the supreme court vacancy caused by the retirement of Justice George Sutherland.

New dealers jubilantly proclaimed that Associate Justice George Sutherland's retirement would open a new era of liberal trends, a further extension of federal powers and judicial protection of administration policies.

President Roosevelt's effort to reorganize the supreme court, is believed now to be ended.

Sutherland's action and the likelihood of other retirements are opening to the President an opportunity to name a strong minority of actual "Roosevelt justices."

Defended by these "Roosevelt justices" and supported in greater or lesser degree by the existing liberal or moderate members of the court, distinctly new deal theories are likely to find refuge now where they once were scored.

"It seems to me that this is the definite end of an epoch," Sen. Sherman Minton, D., Ind., said today of Sutherland's retirement. "The future will see a definite extension of the power of the federal government to protect the people. It will be less difficult to make a democracy work."

AMERICAN LEGION POST MEETS AT DIAMOND ON JANUARY 18TH

At the regular meeting of El Dorado Post 119, American Legion, Wednesday night, a fine turnout in membership was evident with much interest manifested in veteran and civic affairs.

One of the most important matters of public interest was a definite plan to hold the next regular meeting of the Post, on Wednesday, January 19th, at Diamond Springs, in the Landl Hall. A committee of four, Sam Hras, Wm. Liddicoet, C. P. David and Paul Ransom, was appointed to make full arrangements for the out-of-town meeting.

This is the second time the Legion has planned out-of-town meetings, the other being at Georgetown last year.

The committee announced that it would be an open meeting, with the general public invited to attend; veterans and their friends to bring the ladies and enjoy a good meeting followed by entertainment.

It was announced that Willard Wilkinson and Wm. Liddicoet will hold a reorganization meeting, preceded by a dinner on the night of Monday, January 10th, for the Sons of the Legion. All boys, whether now members or not, are especially invited to be on hand. A fine time is being planned the two Legionnaires report.

Dr. L. J. Anderson reports the lights have been installed in the Junior recreational hall and that efforts are being made to get a stove on which the boys can do some cooking.

A social dance has been planned, by the committee in charge, to be held at the Veterans Hall, on January 26th.

In a letter from Manhart Post, American Legion, of Sacramento an invitation was extended to members of the local post, to be their guests at special Past Commander's Night, which is to be held on Thursday, January 13th. Several members indicated they would be in attendance.

Joint Installation Tuesday Night

The officers recently elected by Placerville Parlor No. 9, N. S. G. W., and Marguerite Parlor No. 12, N. D. G. W., will be installed at a joint meeting of the two parlors at the Masonic hall on Tuesday evening, January 11. An entertainment program is being arranged and refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

Haslam, secretary of the county Agricultural Conservation Association, and the showing of motion pictures of salmon fishing in the northwest, as features.

Wednesday evening, Camino center heard a very interesting and instructive discussion of the wage and hours law as it relates to agriculture, by W. P. Fassett and V. H. Hamilton, and a talk on "The National Guard and its relation to the People," by Captain Irvin Pool, commanding Company E, 184th Infantry, California National Guard, at Auburn.

O. O. F. hall in Placerville, it was announced this week by Frank Ward, who is again chairman.

Although the nation-wide observance will be a week later, the chairman found it necessary to schedule the El Dorado County observance on January 22, because the I. O. O. F. hall will not be available on the following Saturday night.

Mr. Ward is calling his committee together following the meeting of the Placerville Aerie of Eagles on Monday night, to complete definite detailed arrangements for the January 22 dance.

William Wells, who lives on the Coloma road just beyond the city limit, was lodged in jail on Wednesday evening by city officers for an investigation as to his sanity.

CITY ACQUIRES SEWER ROUTE

Uppertown Rights-Of-Way Cost Taxpayers About $730; Action In Condemnation Dismissed

The probable cost of rights-of-way for the new city sewer line installation in Upper Placerville, from Washington Street to the easterly city limits, was increased to approximately $729.26 on Wednesday evening as city officials reached a settlement with Mrs. Annie Spriggs.

Earlier in the day, City Attorney Thomas Maul had filed a suit to condemn the right-of-way, having been authorized to do so by the city council at its regular meeting Monday night.

Mr. Maul said Thursday morning he will dismiss the condemnation action.

The city settled with Mrs. Spriggs, for 237.5 feet on the basis of 25 cents a foot, for $59.38.

The council Monday night authorized the payment of $157.70 to Dante Bacocini. This was for a right of way through 630.8 feet of his property.

The council authorized the payment of $157.70 to Dante Bacocini. This was for a right of way through 630.8 feet of his property.

In addition, Bacocini claims some interest in another property through which the sewer line runs a distance of 470 feet. Interest in the property is also claimed by John and Charles Bacigaluppi and as soon as the question of ownership is settled, the city will pay for this at 25 cents per foot, a total of $117.50.

The Council paid to George Bacigaluppi $7.25 for a right of way 29 feet long at 25 cents a foot.

The Council paid to Antone Pillett $100 for a right-of-way 500 feet long at 20 cents a foot.

The Council paid to Alex Revaz $116.80 for a right of way 467.2 feet long at 25 cents per foot.

The Council paid to Walter A. Martin $145.38 for a right of way 381.5 feet long at 25 cents a foot; and paid $15 to G. Turchetti and $10 to M. Peterson.

Japs Extend Censorship

Press Dispatches Subject To Editing By Civilian Agents, Says Nippon Spokesman

SHANGHAI, (UP)—Japanese authorities announced today that they intended to put censors in the offices used by all foreign cable companies. Censors were installed yesterday in radio offices.

A Japanese embassy spokesman announced that censorship of cables and radio was effective. It is directed primarily to matter other than press news, he said, but the press also is subject to censorship.

The censors are civilians. Correspondents will not be informed of what has been censored. Recent terrorism in the international settlement was reported to be responsible for the move.

The United States cruiser Augusta, which has been the flagship of Admiral Harry E. Yarnall, commander-in-chief of the American fleet, left for Manila today. Admiral Yarnall transferred his flag to the navy patrol vessel Isabel and made the gunboat Sacramento the station ship.

Household Upkeep

There are various methods by which wives come into the fund of money which they send for household expenses. There is the "dole." The wife asks her husband for money every time she needs some and usually explains to him humbly just what she needs that sum for. He hands it over to her, grudgingly or cheerfully, and she uses it and waits until another expenditure arises before asking him for another "dole."

Another method is the allowance plan. The husband apportions to his wife, for household expenses a certain share of his weekly income. If she can run the house on less than that amount, she may use the extra for anything she may desire. This has its advantages over the dole system, but tempts the wife to feed the family on the east expensive fare that she may eke out a pittance for something her heart desires.

There is the charge system when the wife gets things charged at the stores and the husband settles the bills, with more or less comment at home afterward. It is so easy to say "Charge it," and this too often leads to extravagance.

In the checking system, husband and wife have a common bank account and both may draw on it without the knowledge or consent of the other. In this case, both must be careful or they will make checks which the balance in the bank does not cover.

The maintenance of the home is a family matter and husband and wife should have joint sessions frequently over income and expenditure and be sure they work together harmoniously, understandingly and wisely.

Correct Shoes

Children's and men's shoes are usually built on hygienic lines, but with their high heels, pointed toes and too narrow lasts, a large proportion of women deform their feet and suffer from this after middle life, if not before. Many backaches, headaches, much fatigue, and symptoms of disease are caused by incorrect shoes.

Flatfoot or weakfoot is a common ailment among women. There are twenty-six bones in the foot and four times as many ligaments to hold them in place. These are operated by an intricate mass of muscles and nerves. The whole works are thrown out of gear if one persists in wearing shoes which hold them in incorrect positions.

To discover broken arches or a healthy foot, make a foot print when the foot is wet, or step on powdered charcoal then on a piece of white paper. The normal foot print is narrow in the middle and wide at the heel and toe and the toes are not crowded together. If the foot is flat, it leaves a print which is almost the same width through its entire length.

To correct this difficulty, walk with toes straight ahead, not "toeing out," and wear shoes which permit exercise and use of all the muscles, give room for the bones without crowding, and do not tilt the body out of line by high heels.

The inner edge of the sole of a shoe should be straight, not curved in toward the center. Shoes should not be stiff, tight, short nor have too small nor too high heels, nor too thin soles.

Refrigerator Rolls

Raised dough for rolls may be kept in the refrigerator for a week, in cold weather. In the summer, its keeping qualities are reduced, but if the refrigerator is very cold, it will keep for a few days, but should be watched. Some housewives prepare such dough, store it in a large bowl, brush the surface with melted fat, cover it tightly and set it away for time of need. For a meal, anytime, enough rolls for a serving may be pinched off, shaped, let rise again, and baked. Some prefer to shape the rolls, set them away in an aluminum baking pan and have them ready to slip into the oven when they are removed from the refrigerator, without being kneaded or handled

PARADE OF SPORTS

By HENRY McLEMORE
United Press Staff Writer

LOS ANGELES, (UP)—A year ago today one Sam Snead was looked upon by the golfing fraternity as little more than a hill billy freak. It was generally believed that Samuel and his tremendous drives wouldn't last and that he soon would go rolling back into the fastness of his West Virginia hills with more speed than he showed in rolling out of them.

Today, on the eve of the Los Angeles open tournament, one of the most important fixtures of the annual swing, Sam Snead is looked upon with awe by the greatest players of the game, and many of them concede him more than an even chance of becoming the greatest golfer who ever lived.

No player in history, not even Jones or Hagen or Sarazen, ever increased in stature in a twelvemonth more than Snead the one-time rural soda jerk. In one year he came from the environs of nowhere to a place as golf's most arresting figure. The answer is unbelievable power and unbelievable control of the same. From tournament to tournament he marched, getting home with a drive and five iron on holes that nearly all of his rivals had to play two woods. Sam wasn't the first of the super hitters, but he was the first super hitter who could place his Big Bertha shots where he wanted them.

The great progress he has made in a year is reflected in the betting odds for the Los Angeles open that starts tomorrow over the Griffith Park course. The bookmaking gentry has installed Sam and Harry Cooper as favorites, and when you get coupled with Cooper you are coupled with the most consistent shotmaker and scorer of them all. Snead is liked above Hoton Smith, Johnny Revolta, Henry Picard, Byron Nelson, and Jimmy Hines — men he hardly knew a year ago.

But for Cooper, Snead would stand out in the Los Angeles field like what the Hungarians so deftly term "la thumb sore." But nobody stands out above "Lighthouse Harry," the Chicago wizard.

Today through the mails I received a sheet of figures from Freddie Corcoran, tournament manager for the P. G. A. The figures were a analysis of the leading professional scorers in 1937.

And what do you think Cooper's average was? Just a sloppy 71.58 for 78 rounds in 26 tournaments. That's all — just a fraction better than even fours in tournaments in which he encountered slow greens, fast greens, rain, blistering heat, baked fairways, cold, and snow. A study of those figures must have been as hock to Harry. I mean it must make a man wonder what sort of business he is in when he shoots better than perfect golf and yet winds up without winning a national title. Cooper has yet to break through in the open or P. G. A. tournaments. Something always happens to balk his bid, such as Tony Manero's final round at Baltusrol two years ago — a round achieved after Harry had accepted congratulations on what seemed a winning score.

Harry has nothing on Snead, though. Snead fired a 283 in the open last year, which was a score good enough to win all but one of the opens in history. Yet he had to be content with second money when Ralph Guldahl, the automobile salesman came in with 281.

Girl, 23, Qualifies As Tugboat Captain

PORT ALBERTA, B. C., (UP)—Dorothy Clarice Blackmore, a 23-year-old blonde, is planning to be Canada's first woman tugboat captain.

Dorothy recently passed her examination for a tugboat master's certificate under supervising examiner Lionel H. Lindsay of Vancouver, and confirmation from Ottawa is expected soon.

The girl has spent six years on her father's tugboat and is a high school graduate.

Whole wheat flour, chopped dates or other fruit, sugar, spices, lemon or vanilla flavors, butter, egg or nuts may change the taste and type of the rolls and furnish interesting variety.

Winter Salad

When green things for salad are less abundant and more expensive, make a delicious salad by combining sauer kraut and grated carrots. Nut meats or chopped green peppers may be added, if desired.

Beautiful Furniture

One reason why colonial furniture is so much beloved by those who are familiar with the best in furnishings is because of its simple forms, its beautiful wood, its appropriate and restrained decoration, its charming dignity and its sincere hominess.

Much furniture is too ornate, too elaborate, too cluttered up with meaningless detail. Machine decoration has spoiled the rich beauty of some furniture. False ideals of what is in good taste is responsible for undesirable furniture.

Tawdry products, in poor proportions, over-decorated and freakish, are an abomination. The craze for antiques is not merely a fad, but has sound sense back of it, because our colonial ancestors somehow produced a style of furniture which was really beautiful.

We are fortunate today in being able to find in the markets hooked rugs which are not expensive and which are natural accompaniments to this colonial furniture. Chintz designs of that day are also available in many fabrics, and our homes may be furnished beautifully and simply in the harmonious styles of our most artistic period.

Fashions, Fads Foibles

In this day of ornate curls, an extremely simple hair "do" is distinguished. Some smart looking women are combing their straight back from the forehead and sides and with nothing else, are calling this a coiffure.

The "foundation dress" is economical and more popular than ever. There is nothing better for it than black, and with it may be worn all sorts of accessories, in harmonious ensemble. One day they may be a red belt, red tie, flower, beads, collar or other neck piece, and the next day all may be blue, pink, lavender or the aristocratic white. There are numerous small gadgets which can make the basic dress serve almost a whole winter's needs, the clock around. Accompanying shoes, purse, gloves and hat may change the appearance of the entire outfit.

Stuffed Peppers

Parboil raw green or red peppers for five minutes or use canned pimientos which are already cooked. Fill these with a mixture prepared as follows: Fry together one small onion and a stalk of celery, chopped, and a half pound of ground meat. Add a cup of cooked rice, egg, and salt, pepper and butter to season. Cover with buttered crumbs and bake in muffin tins for about a half hour.

POOR GRAMMAR PERILS GRADUATION AT PENNSYLVANIA

PHILADELPHIA, (UP)—For the first time, students at the University of Pennsylvania will be required to speak as well as write good English to obtain a diploma.

As a result of recommendations by a faculty committee, under-graduates who "fail to achieve and maintain a satisfactory standard in written and spoken English in all phases of their university work may be barred from graduation until they succeed in overcoming that deficiency."

Instructors were directed to insist that all papers defective in English (including quiz books whenever it is feasible) be re-written. A student who consistently fails to reach the standard set shall be referred to his dean.

Finally, the new code rules, unless the student has "achieved a satisfactory standard in written and spoken English, the executive committee of the school concerned shall have power to withhold his degree."

Girls Held For Murder In $2.10 Holdup

NEWARK, N. J., (UP)—Mannish, 20-year-old Ethel Stohl and her 17-year-old girl friend, Genevieve Owens, faced murder charges today for slaying a bus driver in a holdup that netted them $2.10.

The girls confessed their brief criminal career resulted in the slaying of William Barhorst, father of two young children, on the night of December 21 in Belleville, N. J., near Newark.

Prize Rabbit Dog Only Understands Eskimo

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass., (UP)—When Harty Bodfish wants a rabbit pie, he merely goes for a stroll in the woods with his Eskimo dog. The dog will dart into underbrush emerge a few moments later with a rabbit, and surrender the prize to Bodfish.

Bodfish speaks to the dog in Eskimo lingo—the only language it understands.

Bing Crosby "Papa" For Fourth Time

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Bing Crosby was presented with his fourth son yesterday by Mrs. Dixie Lee Crosby. The 6 pound, 5 ounce baby was born in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital. The crooner paced the floor nervously for several hours before the birth.

Their other children are Gary Evans Crosby, 4, and Philip and Dennis, 2-year-old twins.

Alameda "Mammy" Claims Age Of 111 Years

ALAMEDA, (UP)—Mrs. Sylvia Hoover of Alameda, colored "mammy" who was born to slavery on a Tennessee cotton plantation, lays claim to being 111 years old. And there seems to be none who can dispute her assertion.

Although none in those days kept an accurate record of a slave's birth date, relatives believe she was born in 1826.

Plenty of sleep, plain food and clean living are the secret of long life, according to Mrs. Hoover.

GAY CHILDREN RAISE DIN FOR SANTA IN ITALY

By ALDO FORTE

United Press Staff Correspondent

ROME, (UP)—While young and old participate in ceremonies traditional to Epiphany eve, Italy's Santa Claus, a mythical fairy godmother called Befana made her annual rounds tonight.

Christmas day in Italy is purely a religious holiday and children take no part in it except to attend special mass, but tonight and tomorrow is the holiday for them.

Italians give their children presents on Epiphany instead of Christmas in commemoration of the date on which the Three Wise Men came to the stable of Bethlehem bringing the Christ Child their gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

With riotous noisemaking, reminiscent of an American Halloween, Epiphany eve is celebrated in the center of the famous Navona square, which for the occasion is transformed into a children's toyland. For centuries the holiday has been celebrated in this square.

Mrs. Esther Petach was confined at home Wednesday with a severe cold. Police Officer Le Bourveau was acting city clerk during the forenoon and Miss Pauline Watkins attended to the duties in the afternoon.

FRESNO MEXICAN HELD WIFE, 9 CHILDREN IN "PRISON"

FRESNO, (UP)—The wife and nine children of Marcos Cadena today accused of holding them prisoners in their home most of their lives. He was held for a lunacy hearing.

He governed the home with a club and a meat cleaver, they said, and in the past 23 years, since she married him at the age of 15, he had permitted his wife to leave the house only twice. Those were the times they moved from one town to another.

Their home here was a three-room shack, and the only outsiders that ever entered the home were the midwives who delivered the nine children. When he left the house, he chained his young wife to a bed.

NAVY DECLINES COMMENT ON REPORT BOMBER IS MISSING

SAN DIEGO, (UP)—A giant two-motored patrol bomber, believed attached to the navy's VP-7 squadron, and thought to be carrying a crew of between six and eight men, has been missing in the Pacific since late yesterday, the U. S. Coastguard headquarters here announced today.

The Coastguard air base reported the navy advised them of the missing plane at 11 p. m., yesterday. The coastguard said it received its report from an officer on the staff of the aircraft scouting force.

Navy authorities at the North Island air base refused to comment merely stating "there is nothing for publication at the present."

"EBB TIDE" OPENS AT EMPIRE TONIGHT, ENDS FRIDAY

The most successful color film that has yet reached the screen is the first technicolor sea story, "Ebb Tide," which opens Thursday night at the Empire Theatre. There has been no setting so far which shows itself so perfectly adapted to technicolor photography as the South Seas locale of this story by Robert Louis Stevenson and Lloyd Osbourne. The lush tropical vegetation, the bright blue of Pacific skies, and the water shading of the South Pacific all needed to be filmed in color, and in "Ebb Tide" all their beauty is recorded to the best possible advantage. The result is a film of unique beauty. The cast of "Ebb Tide" is headed by Oscar Homolka, Frances Farmer, Ray Milland, Lloyd Nolan and Barry Fitzgerald.

JOAN OF ARC BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY KEPT AT DOMREMY

DOMREMY, Lorraine (UP)—The 535th birthday of Joan of Arc, liberator and patron saint of France, was celebrated here today with a solemn mass in the basilica erected in her memory and by popular celebrations in the village.

Domremy is much the same today as it was on January 6, 1412, when the little girl was born who was to hear voices while she guarded sheep in the fields commanding her to lead the French armies against the British invaders. There are only 300 inhabitants in this village today, perhaps fewer than during the period when Joan lived simply among its inhabitants.

But today thousands of visitors from all parts of France came on a pilgrimage in memory of the gallant girl who succeeded in urging the French king to take up arms and drive the English from France.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish by this means publicly to thank the many kind friends who offered their sympathy and assistance on the occasion of our recent sad bereavement. We wish especially to thank the pallbearers, the minister, the singers, and those who sent the beautiful floral tributes.

FARM LOAN ASSOCIATION MEETING CALLED FOR JANUARY 12

Secretary-treasurer A. C. Winkelman announces the 1938 annual meeting of the Placerville National Farm Loan Association has been set by the board of directors for January 12, at 10 o'clock at the court house.

According to Mr. Winkelman the 1938 annual meetings of the cooperative units of the Federal Land Bank system are the most important since their organization. The past year has witnessed a marked decentralization of responsibilities and powers into the hands of the board of directors and the secretary-treasurer of each association. Members of an association are urged to attend their annual meeting so that they may become thoroughly familiar with the newly developed policies.

Directors of the Placerville National Farm Loan Association at the present time are: S. Walker, L. Enzler, J. C. Akin, J. A. Winkelman and W. H. Lovejoy.

Pittsburgh was chosen second and Santa Clara third among the 24 leading teams.
